120 Laborers at Heeia Decide Not to Work.

A hundred and twenty Japanese from Heeia plantation on the other side of this island, marched to town this morning to consult with the agents of the immigration companies under which they signed as contract laborers.

On Saturday these Japanese demanded their contracts and on Sunday, the plantation manager handed each one his paper. There was a big row at the plantation Saturday night at which, it is understood, some agitators were present. This meeting lasted until midnight.

It was this morning that the effect of the meeting was seen for, suddenly and without giving the slightest reason, the number of Japanese mentioned quit their work and, getting their clothes together, set off for town. They said nothing whatever about returning.

By the action of the Japanese this morning, Heeia plantation is left with but a hundred and fifty men to do the work and, under the circumstances, the men who quit work can say absolutely nothing if, upon desiring to return to work, they are told by the management to go elsewhere.

HILLO TO HAVE GOOD RACES

Hilo is going to have a good race meeting on the Fourth, notwithstanding some unexpected discouragements. The departure of Colonel W. H. Cornwell and Prince David for the National Democratic Convention caused many blanks in the horses that were going to be sent. Already it is known, however, that at least forty horses will appear on the Hilo park track.

John R. Wilson sent down six of his horses in the Helene on Saturday. Of their merits for producing lively sport, it need only be mentioned that the string, at the late Kapoloa park meeting of the Hawaiian Jockey Club, won four out of six races.

Wm. Norton is going to send Directress to race Louie, last year's winner of the free for all trotting and pacing event on the Hawaiian Jockey Club's track. Louie is now the property of Chas. E. Egan of Oahu.

Bonnie Judd and Chas. H. Bellina will also send fleet horses to Hilo, and other Honolulu owners are expected to do likewise. Albert Horner will contribute racers from his stables at Kalaheo. A quota will also be furnished from the district of Kauai.

The Honolulu horses will be forwarded in the Kinau on the 26th inst., which will give them nearly seven days for recovering their land legs after the voyage. It is likely that many excursionists from Honolulu will go to see the races and, incidentally, take stock of the new enterprises and general progress of Hilo and its neighborhood.

THE CHILDREN'S DANCE.

The exhibition given by Mrs. Gunn's dancing class Saturday evening afforded a most pleasing sight of childish grace and beauty. The Opera House was crowded with friends of the children and every seat and all the boxes were filled by the society folk of Honolulu. The little ones have been well trained and went through the figures of the class dances without a hitch; the individual dances of members of the class were all very well and gracefully done and showed careful training and practice.

A Good Meal.

The Union Grill has been an unqualified success from the very start. The fame of George Lycurgus as a caterer to the daintiest of palates extends even beyond the bounds of Honolulu and the rejoicing among those who love a good dinner was great when they heard that George was to provide them. And not only can you now get a real good dinner at a restaurant in Honolulu but it is provided among the daintiest of surroundings; the apartment upstairs, fitted for ladies and dinner parties, to which one ascends over a soft carpeted stairway at the side, is as attractive a place as one could wish for a quiet lunch or an after-theater supper.

The grill will prove a boon for ladies down town shopping, whose only recourse hitherto at lunch time has been to go home and it fills the long felt want so often expressed in Honolulu for a good first class restaurant.

Kinau Late.

The Kinau arrived from her usual ports at about 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon when she should have been in at 1. The delay was caused by a run to Kailua, Kona for Geo. H. Robertson and J. A. McCandless.

On the trip to Hilo the Kinau found the Jas. Rolph hovering about off Lahaina with a cargo of coal from the Sound for Kihel. She had been drifting about in contrary weather for a week or more. The Kinau towed her to her destination. On the return trip the Kinau towed the Lyman D. Foster to sea from Kihel.

CHINESE POLITICAL CLUB

Formation of New Organization Accomplished Saturday Night.

Out for Good Government—No Decision As to What Party Chinese Will Affiliate With—Names of Officers.

In the neighborhood of sixty Chinese, including the most important business men of that nationality in Honolulu, met in the hall of the United Chinese Society Saturday night for the purpose of forming an American-Chinese political union. Those present were, of course, men who were either born in Hawaii or who had been naturalized here.

The meeting placed C. Winam in the chair as temporary chairman. The meeting was then called to order and Mr. Winam in a few well chosen words stated that the object of the meeting was to discuss a permanent political organization, under the new regime, of Chinese entitled to vote by virtue of their being Hawaiian born or of having become naturalized. Such Chinese had certain rights and these should be secured.

After this came an informal discussion during which those not acquainted with what the new state of affairs means had things explained to them by those who had followed the matter closely. There were no speeches.

After deliberating and asking advice, the temporary chairman appointed the following committee to draw up rules and by-laws for the society to be presented at a meeting to be held in a few days: Winam, Chock Hoy, Ching On, Ho Fong, Wong Chow, Ng Chun and three others.

The following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year: President—Wong Kwai. Vice President—Li Cheong. English Secretary—W. Y. Kwai Fong.

Chinese Secretary—C. Din Sing. Treasurer—Wong Leong. One of the officers gave out the following to a Bulletin reporter this morning:

"We are out for good government and equal rights. Of course, what we want first of all, is a recognition of our rights as full fledged American citizens but we will be at all times for clean government."

"We cannot say just now what party we will affiliate with but I understand that all who were present at Saturday night's meeting will range themselves on one side. No, we will not be independent. What we are to be will come out at the next meeting of the club."

It is understood on good authority that the Chinese will unite with the Republican party. No permanent name has yet been chosen. This will be decided on at the next meeting.

INDEPENDENT PARTY OF MAUI

Walluku, June 16.—There was another meeting of the native Independent party at Wailue last Thursday evening. Mr. Edwards, delegate to Honolulu, announced to the meeting the desire of the native leaders in Honolulu not to affiliate with either the Republican or Democratic parties. Speeches were made by Thos. Clark and J. E. Bush. Among the names mentioned as the Maui ticket of the Independent party for next election were: Senate—W. H. Cornwell, John Richardson and Thos. Clark. House of Representatives—Wm. White and S. E. Kalue were the only possible candidates so far and probably Kamakele of Kula district.

Will Start Poker Den.

It is learned on good authority that two men, no win Honolulu, will soon set up a poker den in the midst of the city in open defiance to the local laws. They maintain that poker is not a percentage game and state that they are backed up by opinion after opinion in the States. In case of arrest, which they expect will follow speedily, they will carry their case through the courts to test the law.

The auction sale of the first wireless telegraph message was held in the Capitol grounds Saturday afternoon. The message was bought through the firm of Burnette & Decker for $30. Will E. Fisher paid $50 for the right of auctioneering the message, thus making $80 to turn over to such charity as the purchaser may designate.

MAUI JAPANESE ARE UGLY

Labrers Attack Agents Giving Them Good Advice.

Police Promptly Eject Laborers From Their Quarters—Immigration Agents Refuse to Prosecute Want Hire Money.

Walluku, June 16.—Most of the Maui plantations are in a great pilikia now as all the Japanese contract laborers struck for higher wages yesterday. All the Japanese asked at least one dollar per day, a demand which the plantation managers cannot readily comply with.

The laborers know now that they are free laborers, that the contract system has been wiped off the face of the Hawaiian Islands, so they seem to think that as free men, they are free to demand what compensation their services are worth in their own estimation.

The laborers have not consented to go to work at the pay the plantation managers are now willing to give them, viz.: $17 per month. Some natives and Portuguese have also joined in the strike. Kihel and Spreckelsville Japanese have not struck yet.

Sheriff L. M. Baldwin and a strong posse of Walluku police were summoned to Lahaina last Thursday, June 14th, to quell a disturbance among the Japanese contract laborers at Kaanapali, Lahaina.

It seems that on that morning three Japanese gentlemen sent over from Honolulu by the Japanese immigration company arrived at Kaanapali and they endeavored to reason with their countrymen not to put the plantations in jeopardy by quitting work as they had intended to do if they did not get an increase of pay. These words of advice were too much for the ignorant and infuriated Japanese and the ring leaders attacked the three gentlemen from Honolulu with clubs and knives, the latter barely escaping with their lives to the house of the head luna, Birkmeyer.

They received nasty gashes on the head and face from the clubs wielded by the enraged Japanese.

The three injured commissioners from Honolulu are now being cared for by the plantation doctor, but they refused to prosecute their assailants, claiming that their actions were those of madmen and that they did not know nor feel the responsibility of their offense.

When the police reached Lahaina, the row had already quieted down and the attention of the whole police force from Walluku was turned towards ejecting from the plantation quarters the Japanese who refused to go to work, a task which was by no means easy. Under Sheriff Baldwin's guidance the Japanese were forcibly ejected from their quarters without bloodshed.

Jas. W. Bergstrom.

Mr. Jas. W. Bergstrom, the manager of the Bergstrom Music Co., will return to Honolulu the latter part of this month bringing with him the most complete stock of piano and music instruments ever brought to this country.

Among the novelties he has secured as the wonderful automatic harp that has attracted so much attention on account of the marvelous way in which it renders the most difficult classical and popular selections, performing them with an execution beyond human possibility.

He will also introduce the Zonograph, a new piano playing attachment superior to anything yet invented in that line and of a much reduced price. But what will probably please the music loving people of Honolulu most will be a beautiful Chickering grand concert piano which will be loaned freely by the music company for concert use.

Although Mr. Bergstrom has enjoyed much of the Mainland entertainment he says he will be glad to return to the sunny clime of Hawaii next.

Post Office Appointments.

At about 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon Postmaster General Out summoned Messrs. Kenake and Madiera of the department and told them of their appointment by him to the posts of treasurer and assistant postmaster respectively. The two young men are eminently suited to the positions. Mr. Kenake has ever been known as an obliging and courteous officer and his capacity for work has made him well known in the States as well as at home. Mr. Madiera is comparatively a new man but, during his connection with the department, he has shown himself a most efficient officer. This is his 4th promotion under Mr. Out. Mr. Madiera is from Santa Cruz, Cal.

11th OF JUNE.

Hawaiian and American flags can be gotten in Iwakami's store, Hotel street.

Messrs. D. H. Chase, Jas. L. Coke, W. O. Aiken and Judge C. S. Smith of Hilo met last Sunday night on the top of Haleakala. The parties, excepting Mr. Aiken, returned to Walluku late on the following day.

RAPID TRANSIT THIS YEAR

Construction of Roadbed to B gita in September And Be Rushed.

System in Three Divisions to Connect Diamond Head and Moanalua, Harbor and Nuuanu—Style of Cars.

Clinton G. Ballentyne, manager of the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company, who returned from the Mainland last week, this morning gave a Bulletin reporter a talk about his trip and the practical intentions of the company.

"My business away was the purchase of material for the roadbed and overhead structure, also the perfecting of arrangements for the transportation of our material from the East, all of which, with the exception of the cars, is now in transit. The cars will follow later and be here in time to permit their being assembled, and mounted on the trucks when the power plant is ready for operation."

"Our engines, boilers and generators are now at Seattle. The rails are on the way across the continent from Stirling, Va. Our poles, ties and building material are now loading on the Sound and will be here between the middle and end of July."

"Actual construction of the roadbed will begin the early part of September and be rapidly pushed by the most improved methods until the system, consisting of about twenty miles, has been completed. The lines will cover the residence and business portions of the city very completely."

"From Panahou through Wilder avenue, Lunalilo, Alapai, King and Liliha streets will constitute one division. Another will cover a route from Moanalua to Diamond Head. The third division will extend from the water front to Nuuanu valley near the Government electric light works by way of Emma street."

"But one fare of five cents will be charged between any two points, for a continuous journey, in the entire system. School children up to the age of 17 years will travel for two and a half cents."

"A trailer will be attached to each motor car, in which smokers, carriers of fish, and Chinese and Japanese laboring people will be expected to travel."

"We intend to ask the Board of Health to pass a regulation to make expectorating in all cars a misdemeanor. If the Board do this we shall enforce it to the letter."

All of our cars, with the exception of two excursion cars, have cross seats, with middle aisles. An electric push button is fitted into each stanchion, which passengers will use instead of a bell rope. Every car will have its motor man and its conductor."

"Unless difficulties at present unforeseen should arise, we shall have a considerable portion of the system in operation by the end of the year."

Going to Paris.

Wm. H. Sea, Tom Hennessey, William Ellis, Tom Silva, East Kahulu and "Judy," the six young Hawaiians now singing Hawaiian songs for swell functions in San Francisco, have decided to leave soon for Paris, there to try their hand at charming the Parisians with their music. From letters recently received from San Francisco the boys are doing remarkably well. They have engagements nearly every night and play almost exclusively at social functions.

Several times have clubs of this kind come from here to the States, but these have always returned "strapped." However, this fact has been invariably due to bad management. The club now in San Francisco is working entirely on a business basis, and each man must live up to the agreements made. The young men are living as inexpensively as possible and are saving all their money for the trip to Paris.

Case Appealed.

Attorney Strauss has been given notice of appeal in the case of Wong Man, sentenced to one month's imprisonment on the charge of larceny in the second degree. There has been considerable talk in town about this case. Some even go so far as to hint at a "set up job" on the part of the Japanese living in the house out of which the Chinaman is alleged to have been seen coming with a paper box of money.

Maui Police Changes.

Walluku, June 16.—Wm. E. Saffery and Wm. Keau were appointed captain and lieutenant respectively for the Walluku police force on Admission Day June 14th. Former Captain of Police Guy S. Goodrich is now timekeeper at the Kihel plantation. These appointments of Sheriff Baldwin have met with the approval of this community.

MAUI'S ADMISSION DAY

Enthusiastically Observed by Luau in Beautiful Iro Valley.

Over Six Hundred People Took Part—Speeches by Robertson, Kalua and Bush—Dancing and Singing.

Walluku, June 16.—Last Sunday afternoon several of the prominent citizens of Walluku and Kahului met in the courthouse to discuss ways and means for properly celebrating Admission Day, June 14. Judge J. W. Kalua presided. The following committees were appointed:

Finance—C. B. Wells, Geo. Hons, J. T. Aluli, D. L. Meyer and R. W. Fuller. Arrangements—John W. Kalua, L. M. Baldwin, Jno. T. Aluli, S. E. Kaleikau and Jas. T. Taylor. Entertainment—Jas. N. K. Keola, C. Waldeyer, Mrs. Henry, the Misses Hons and Margaret Nape.

Messrs. G. B. Robertson and John W. Kalua were selected as orators of the day.

Kamehameha Day passed unnoticed in Walluku, as the various committees to whom the work of getting up the luau were entrusted, were busy arranging for the 14th. Messrs. J. W. Kalua, J. T. Taylor and John T. Aluli sent up gangs of men to Iro valley to clear the place where the luau was to be held. The spot chosen was a little above the second crossing and a few hundred yards above the memorable spot where Kamehameha the Great waged his famous battle with the sons of Kahakili, the King of Maui, during the latter part of the last century. Sheriff Baldwin also kindly allowed a number of prisoners to clear up the Lantana bushes on the Iro road leading to the place. Big stones were moved from the stream in order to make the crossings easily possible for vehicles. A large platform for dancing was also erected, which was the most novel feature of the undertaking.

Judge Kalua and the big gang of men and women under him worked day and night in order to make the affair a great success and their efforts were not in vain as judged by those who participated in the festivities.

Mrs. Henry and Miss Nape had but two days to train a select number of ladies and gentlemen to sing patriotic Hawaiian and American airs appropriate to the occasion.

At 11 a. m. sharp the choir of ladies and gentlemen under Mrs. Henry and Miss Nape sang "The Red, White and Blue" and "Hawaii Fair."

G. B. Robertson, orator of the day, was then introduced to the large assemblage of Hawaiians and foreigners. John E. Bush followed Mr. Robertson in a neat little speech in English and Hawaiian. Judge Kalua indulged in humorous speech which brought forth laughter from all quarters. But one thing he impressed on his hearers was the fact that all were American citizens now, and the brown skin subjects of President McKinley must not be equal to the occasion, that is be the equal of any other under the protection of the American eagle. The exercises closed with the choir singing "America," "Hawaii Pono!" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

The large assemblage then was seated at three long tables provided for the occasion and enjoyed the many good things laid on the table and prepared in real Hawaiian fashion.

After the luau the dancers whiled away the rest of the afternoon in the dancing pavilion. Music was furnished by the combined orchestras from Wailue and Walluku. The finance committee, in the very short while given them, collected nearly $100 which will be nearly sufficient to meet all expenses of the luau.

At the Orpheum.

The always popular Mascotte is solected as the opening bill this week. The Mascotte is well known as a regular reservoir of funny sayings and doings, discharged by Lorenzo, Wm. Wolf, and his Lord Chamberlain, Roscoe, Mr. Brunkin. There is also a good deal of pretty music in the opera and the three acts of country, camp and court life give opportunity for a brilliant display of costuming. Mr. Goff plays the part of Peppo the shepherd and Mr. Baker is reported well enough to sing Frederick. Bettina, the Mascotte is to be handled by Miss Sallinger. Altogether what with the merry-making and the music The Mascotte should have a successful run. The Orpheum management have announced their intention of reducing the gallery prices to 25 cents, a cut rate that should prove highly popular.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace J. Craft returned from Mang, Hawaii, in the Kinau Saturday. During their three weeks' stay they saw a lot of good hunting, killing a lot of pigs and quail. Mrs. Craft found a pretty curly head puppy in the woods and brought it home to raise. It is a well known fact that wild dogs abound in the woods about Mana.

Governor Dole Holds

His First Council

Governor S. B. Dole held his first council with heads of departments this morning. Those attending were: H. E. Cooper, Secretary of the Territory, E. P. Dole, Attorney General; J. A. McCandless, Superintendent of Public Works; J. F. Brown, Commissioner of Lands; A. T. Atkinson, Superintendent of Public Instruction; and A. T. Hawes, Private Secretary.

The Governor briefly addressed the officials on matters of detail and readjustment of public business transferred from the Republic to the Territory. Rooms and new chairs were discussed in this connection.

Mr. Cooper as Treasurer submitted a statement of revenues and expenditures on current account for the rest of the year. Expenditures authorized to December 31, 1900 amount to $1,192,692. The revenue estimated to the same date is $150,153.80, which with money on hand promises a balance of $691,155.01. These figures are, however, only approximate, as new expenditures may be authorized in the meantime and the revenue estimate come out differently one way or the other.

The Attorney General read reports from Sheriff Baldwin of Maui and Sheriff Coney of Kauai regarding the restoration to civil rights of certain persons in their respective jurisdictions.

F. Garcia was recommended to the Treasurer for a light wine and beer license.

Commissioner Brown reported that Japanese were committing depredations in the forest reservation along the Volcano road. The matter was referred to the Superintendent of Public Works for stopping.

Mr. Cooper nominated Thomas G. Thrum for Registrar of Conveyances and the following named for assessors: Jonathan Shaw for Oahu; C. H. Dickey, Maui; Melokai and Lanai; N. C. Williams, Hawaii; and J. K. Farley, Kauai and Niihau.

Tomorrow's Shoot.

Early tomorrow morning the Oahu and Oahu jail teams will shoot a rifle match at the Iwalei butts. It will be remembered that each team has won a match. The outcome will be to decide the championship. The very best men will be selected. The balance of favor is with the police team.
